OPEN DISCUSSION GREEN BAY SCHOOL DISTRICT- Motion by Ron DeGrand, second by Jim Osterloh to open the floor for discussion. M/C. People voiced their opinion on the Green Bay School Boards decision on where their children will need to attend school, which they expressed very displeasing comments being that they have to attend a school that they would prefer not to go to, when the bus passes 2 different schools to get there and the amount of time their children are on the bus. The board listened and residents asked for someone on the board to attend other meetings regarding this matter, that if a voice from a Town Board might make a difference. Irv Saharsky agreed to attend and will be contacted by Patti Voigt when these meetings will be.
